

Mexico's Urban Future

June 30, 2016 | New York

Foreign Affairs LIVE: Mexico's Urban Future is a full-day, multi-faceted examination of Mexico's overhaul of its housing policy featuring high-ranking viewpoints on investment, ecological impact, and necessary transformations in urban mobility and technology.

Topics Include:

Consolidating the Housing Sector
Program for Smart City Development
Improving Urban Mobility
Developing Special Economic Zones
Financing the Housing Reform

Venue:

Council on Foreign Relations
58 East 68th Street, New York, NY 10065

Time:

8:30AM- 6:30PM

Questions:

Contact FALive@cfr.org

Speakers Include:

Rosario Robles

Minister of Agrarian, Territorial and Urban Development, Mexico

Paloma Silva

*General Director
National Housing Council*

Jesus Alberto Cano

Federal Mortgage Bank

German Ahumada

Executive Director, ARA Consortium

Sergio Leal

Executive Director, VINTE

Sergio Adem

State of Michoacan

Earn $100 off the ticket price with code FAMEXICO
Visit ForeignAffairsLive.com for details